"IB is well known to us as excellent preparation. Success in an IB program correlates well with success at Harvard. We are pleased to see the credential of the IB Diploma Program on the transcript."
Marilyn McGrath Lewis, Assistant Dean of Admissions, Harvard University

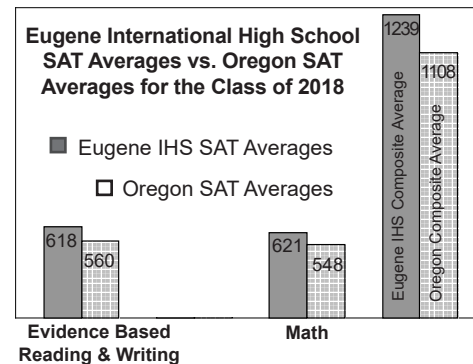

"The rigour of IB Diploma requirements meets our recommendation for the strongest high school preparation possible. ...In sum, the IB Diploma candidate who has met the challenge successfully receives strong consideration from the William and Mary admission committee."
Allison Jesse, former Associate Dean of Admissions, William and Mary College

"The IB is a first-rate program, one we are familiar with, and it prepares students well for a university like ours."
Fred Hargadon, Director of Undergraduate Admissions, Princeton University

Overview

Established in 1984, Eugene International High School (Eugene IHS) is an award-winning alternative school in international studies for students in grades nine through twelve. The school is designed for students who value global understanding and communication, cultural differences, and improving the human condition. Eugene IHS offers a four-year interdisciplinary humanities curriculum focused on the study of nations, their cultures, history, artistic expression, and political, economic, and belief systems. Students who graduate from Eugene IHS will have developed a cultural awareness necessary for international communication and understanding.

Our School

Located at three sites in District 4J on the campuses of Churchill High School, Sheldon High School, and South Eugene High School, Eugene IHS offers students a core curriculum in international studies during half of their school day. During the other half, Eugene IHS students can select from an array of courses offered in the host schools in the sciences, mathematics, languages, publications, applied technology, physical education, and fine and performing arts. Students with advanced language skills in Spanish or French have the opportunity to participate in language immersion courses in Eugene IHS at the Sheldon and South campuses respectively. Students enroll in Eugene IHS through the 4J District School Choice Lottery.

International Baccalaureate

Eugene IHS is a member of the International Baccalaureate Program, a world-wide affiliation of schools that promotes international standards of achievement. All coursework for Eugene IHS juniors and seniors meets the requirements for the IB program. Eugene IHS students may choose to pursue the full IB Diploma with examinations in six subjects or test as course candidates in individual subjects. IB tests can earn students college credit in universities and colleges all over the world. For more information on the IB Diploma program go to the International Baccalaureate Organization's website at: www.ibo.org.
