For over 35 years, Eugene International High School (Eugene IHS) has been providing an excellent education to students of all abilities and backgrounds. Every student interested in exploring the world is welcome in our school—we are committed to offering this exceptional educational opportunity to all School District 4-J high school students.

Eugene IHS offers a nationally recognized curriculum in international studies taught to the rigorous standards of the International Baccalaureate curriculum.

We employ a variety of best practices to ensure all students' academic success. Some of these features include:

- An integrated curriculum. We make relevant connections to students' lives.
- Team teaching. We create powerful learning opportunities.
- Year-long classes. We provide a more personalized education.
- Student cohort groups. We help students build meaningful relationships.
- Established rigor. We are an International Baccalaureate World School.

Eugene IHS is committed to providing a unique educational experience to students with IEPs, 504 Plans, TAG Plans and other identified special needs.

Eugene IHS inspires students to become global leaders.

Eugene IHS makes learning relevant and fun!

Students having fun learning economics in the Comparative Political and Economic Systems (IB) course.

At the center of student learning in Eugene IHS are the relationships fostered among students, teachers, parents and the community. Working together and in close conjunction with the support services available at each campus, we address the needs of students with embedded (inside the classroom) and designated supports, including direct instruction. We also have dedicated instructional assistants to help students. This ensures all students will receive appropriate instruction, working to reach their full potential in the high school setting.

Eugene IHS is committed to making appropriate accommodations and modifications in accordance with individualized plans. In a challenging academic setting that emphasizes specialized instructional strategies, all Eugene IHS students of differing abilities and backgrounds can prepare for successful living in an international community.

We look forward to seeing you in Eugene IHS!
